At the congress website you find a list of the countries from where VISA is required to enter Sweden. We also provide a list of addresses to Swedish embassies in your countries.

What about travels and accommodation?

At the congress website there is information about different options of accommodation and some advices on how to get here and getting around in the city of Stockholm.

Please note that the congress organising team can not provide individual delegates with hotel reservations.

What about my contribution to the workshop?

A separate letter of instructions about submitting your contribution to the on Sunday morning workshop on “Environmental conflicts and the role of media” has been sent out to those that have indicated an interest in their registration. If you have questions regarding the workshop, please contact: sara@ifejstockholm2006.com

Is there a separate World Water Week registration?

No, we will transfer registration information about the participants that plan to take part of the World Water Week to SIWI. They will send out a WWW press-kit in late June.

Kindest regards,

IFEJ congress organising team
